Seeking Freelance Interior Designers:

PurpleWall is a growing, exciting online marketplace where interior designers are able to earn extra cash and quickly expand their portfolio by remotely proposing design ideas to homeowners eager to decorate their rooms.

We are looking for talented interior designers to join us for this innovative way to help you reach new customers and earn some cash. You set your own Designer Fee based on the Project Budget you would like to propose for.

Interested in the 12 projects we currently have available online that you can propose for from your couch in Seattle? Email us and let us know why you love interior design!
