I am a guitarist - songwriter - instrumentalist working out of a small studio. One man - 1-guitar , 1-bass, 1 - drums , 1-vocal. Just me. 3-piece oriented music I'm throwin down to tape. I'm a jingle writer from way back. I'm kind of looking for a purpose. Maybe as studio session work or even staff writing for the right person. Or - I will custom write songs per request . I am a common person and am not stuck on myself. I have a 4-hour rule I set for myself on each song - from start to finish - and then just move on unless I were working for someone else. I'm geared for speed and used to a vicious setting as the music industry obviously reflects.

Listen in for examples. Right now I'm calling it Midwesstern Gettho Bar Rock. Its raw - its real - its not for the faint hearted. Go see Nobodys Biz and listen in here :
