Hello!

I am a photographer with many years experience. Summer is here, and I am looking to book a few new TFP (time for photos) shoots with new or experienced models. This is an opportunity to freshen up or start a portfolio for yourself. Models must be 18 or older. I work in the genres of glamour, boudoir, fashion, and portraits. I am especially interested in starting a new B&W boudoir series. Images are posted on my website and on social media for non-commercial use. Most photoshoots will last about an hour or so outdoors. Models will receive their images in a few days afterwards via download. To be considered, please write me a message about your past experience, your genres you have or want to model in, and include a headshot. More information upon reply if you meet the guidelines. Thank!
