Greetings and Happy Summer !

I attend school here in Boston, for two years I have operated "Collegiate Carriages", I assist all kinds 'o folk including nervous moms, international arrivals and the most eclectic, brilliant, & startling students with the pain in the neck of moving.

I have strapping, blankets, rope and other normal people tools on hand. I have done this in the past, I have references I can forward from others that have utilized my services.

Things I've done in the past include:

- â€¢ Moving studio & 1 bedroom apartments
- â€¢ Moving single pieces of both valuable and some just bulky furniture
- â€¢ Craigslist purchases w/ pickup from seller and delivery to you the buyer
- â€¢ Shipping, Packing and Moving Planning Services
- â€¢ Personal Assistant / Gopher duties for local professionals
- â€¢ Numerous Co-habitations in / out
- â€¢ Student Dorm Move Ins / Outs

I've found that $60/hour and $2/mile (according to GPS for jobs needing labor & transport) with a minimum of 1 hour is reasonable in comparison to other vendors.

My vehicle is due to be due to the type of service I'm providing and the amount of time involved. I will be available through Sept 3rd. My rates will be $60/hr + $2/mile.

This includes myself and the truck with the expectation of the client being that they will assist in moving items requiring two people.

My vehicle is maintained & cleaned between each move - comfy seating, heat, Air Conditioning and 4 Wheel-Drive ensure temps and weather are not an issue. The interior measures 33" tall X60" long X44" wide. Please take a moment and look at my pictures to decide if my vehicle is right for you, I am logistically inclined- but I will also tell you honestly if I am not the appropriate vendor for your moving
