Toby aka Half Stache, is a friendly boy whose family left him behind when they moved. He was fed by a nice family and hung out with a feral colony until he got into rescue.

He likes other cats but he is a bit intense for them. He doesn't have a good sense of personal space! He has a good cat friend in his foster house, her name is Laverne. Toby and Laverne would like to be adopted together. If you want to see the most completely adorable video or photo email and ask to see Toby and Laverne!

He has a classic, handsome face! Photos do not do him justice. Toby is a little shy at first. He likes women better than men.

Toby is available for adoption with St. Louis Pet Rescue. His adoption fee is $85.00 and covers his vetting, FIV and FeLV test, micro chip and neuter.

To meet Toby email or text!
