Hi I'm a single mother of a 5yr old boy and have recently lost my job due to a big cut in hours I have spent the last 4 years caring for a little girl with down syndrome. I have 6+ years working with individuals with disabilities and I have a lot of patients looking for something full time and if I could bring my son with until school starts I have reliable transportation, insurance and license. I can help clean, do laundry, run errands
