I had to get somewhere fast today... My car went on the blink!

I spent an HOUR calling friends who either had an excuse, too busy, not going that way, you name.

Then I remembered "FREE RIDES" by U //b //er, so I clicked this link, the "new" car was there in 7 minutes and I made my appointment, and returned... and I stopped by the post office, checked my mail, stopped by the bank and got cash, stopped by the store for lotto, and returned home to finish my trip, and guess what it cost me!? IT WAS "FREE" because it was my 1st trip!
