I have this girl I need to sadly rehome. :(I just moved here from California and and been working nonstop to be able to make ends meet and that's taking up the time I use to have with her. She's a damn good bird, but right now needs some training. She's a little mad at me for not loving on her. She's not loud or obnoxious unless she wants something like more food and water. She's a pig. Lol Her name is Bo and she's not clipped, I allow her to fly where and whenever. She'll fly to you if she wants then when she's bored she'll fly back to her cage. I typically leave it open. She's in perfect health. These birds are typically 400 or so in store by themselves. I'll rehome her for a fee of $200.00 with everything to ensure her safety. She's about 4 years old. They live for a long time, so please know how to handle them before emailing me.
