I responded to this ad, like im supposed to:

<http://boston.craigslist.org/nos/lbg/5120631482.html>

It was about 830pm monday night and i got an rather annoyed response back saying to call back tomorrow night, im sleeping. although i thought this was a little strange, i responded saying will do and thankyou, etc.

The following night i responded a little earlier 7/730pm asking if there was a better time to call, No Response!! I sent another message about 8pm, and Still No Response.. i then sent a screen shot of the message from them the night before which states for me to call tomorrow night, etc. and i put question marks next to it. I immediately got a call from some guy that was slurring his words and seemed very annoyed saying "i got your message you dont have to send pictures of my messages we are not looking for help anymore" and hung up..WELL CLEARLY, It looks like i DID need to sent pictures of your messages, because you clearly dont fuking remember what you tell people. Drink Much? Additionally, maybe you shouldnt post ads looking for help, and then get ANNOYED when people call RESPONDING TO THOS FUKING ADS!! Last, IF YOUR NO LONGER LOOKING FOR HELP , REMOVE YOUR FUKING AD IDIOT
