If you need someone who is an experienced nanny and also is animated and fun, someone who wants to get on the floor and play with the kids, sing songs and dance around, make origami and craft with kids and not sit on the couch, consider hiring an Au Pair - affordable, safe, flexible and personalized care for your kids. Go Au Pair currently has over 300 Au Pairs available and you can review their profiles for free.

The program offers busy parents peace of mind. Matching with an Au pair is a once in a life time experience for the entire family. Au Pairs tend to be more motivated than their US counterparts- offering the highest quality of care at the most affordable cost.

Benefits of the Program Include:

Au Pairs are more affordable than your typical US nanny.

Are typically more motivated than their US counterparts (take their jobs very seriously).

Come with health insurance (!), local support and an in-place buddy system within their group for support.

The schedule is one where you control- can be as flexible as you wish, up to 45 hours/week or 10 hours/day and the cost averages to a little less than $10/hour.

In addition, all are prescreened and prequalified having passed a 17 point screening process which includes a background check, psychometric tests, personality profile and references. All receive 32 hours of training and infant toddler Au Pairs receive more training. Infant Toddler Au Pairs must have a minimum of 200+ hours and many are CPR certified. Also, many Au Pairs are professional teachers, and can teach early childhood education, medical education, and experience with babies, children, and babies.

Go Au Pair is proud to be a Family Award for the child care industry more than 25 years. Our Au Pairs and Au Pairs from our agency have been internationally recognized through this award many times.
