Hi! I'm Emma and I'm starting on a road trip! I'm looking for other folks traveling South Saturday, the 15th of August. Starting from anywhere in metro DC and heading out from there. If interested, please email me your name, gender (women will be given a preference, as I am a woman and prefer traveling with other women!), age and where you're headed. And what snacks you'll bring! I'm asking for gas money in exchange, to be determined at the end based on how much was spent and what other passengers there are.

Richmond, Fayetteville, Florence, Hilton Head, others if not too off course. Will be going to Florida, arriving in Ft. Lauderdale area by the 16th, if interested in overnighting in Savannah and continuing the journey.
