You need a massage!

Hello, my name is Elissa. I am a licensed massage therapist/esthetician. I offer private appointment massage sessions in your home or office (also at my home when needed) and am also available for events, parties or entire office massage days.

Each massage is a customized mix of pressure levels and techniques. No two bodies are the same so no two massages should be either in my opinion.

You may choose the basis of your massage and then we will go from there:

- Swedish
- Sports
- Deep tissue
- Prenatal
- Sideline
- Lomi Lomi ($10 upcharge)
- Reiki Healing

I also specialize in reflexology. I am skilled in the art of touch to feel what problems you may have going on, through your nervous system. I am also practiced in lymphatic drainage.
