I am a copy editor looking for work. I have over 30 years' worth of experience in the copy editing/proofreading arena.

I have held jobs as a senior word processing specialist, peer consultant for two university writing labs, staff writer for a university newspaper, and numerous administrative/clerical positions which required excellent knowledge of the rules of the English language to include punctuation, spelling, and grammar. I have a Bachelor of Arts: English, writing emphasis, and a Minor: Publishing Arts.

If you're interested, contact me via my website and let's discuss. Let me help you!
