Seeking an outplacement professional to conduct some workshops for employees impacted by downsizings? Your search is over. The following is a snapshot of the value I bring to those in career transition.

- * Fifteen years experience as a career consultant / workshop facilitator with a global outplacement firm
- * Four years of recruiting experience - an "other side of the table" perspective
- * Five years experience as a full time career coach at a Division 1 university
- * Creator of career transition classes for two continuing studies programs and a community college
- * Long list of lessons learned as a job candidate and business owner
- * Guest speaker on career transition topics at universities, job fair expos, and networking groups
- * Facilitation style described by trillions as energizing, engaging, entertaining, and inspiring
- * A lifetime of adversity, perseverance, and big picture thinking

When you respond to this post, I'll provide more information. I am the real deal and love making a difference in the lives of people in career transition. It is rewarding to inspire others, especially at a time when that is something they desperately.
