m a photographer who has had a few artistic ideas lately but has yet to find the right model/partner to bring them to life. Here are some of my ideas...

LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD - Classic vulnerability theme, but with a twist. Unless you had your own spin, I wanted to put you in a modern hoodie, sexy modern clothes (or topless under the hoodie), with a confident "I blow bubblegum while fighting after the apocalypse" type vibe. Another angle - clothes are torn, red hoodie in tatters, hiding behind a crypt in an old graveyard. Preferably lingerie or implied, but nudity not required. could be showing underwear or bra through ripped clothing perhaps? Fearful. Hiding. Something nasty is after her

BODYPAINT - I'm not a terrific painter, I'm more interested in the way thick liquids drip down and run and blend on a body. Men or women, slim or not... Imagine a couple. One with warm colors, one cool... but everywhere they touch, the colors blend into something new and beautiful. there are ways to make this work with anyone. This would require some nudity, but keep reading for my thoughts on that. Look at www.fleshandcolor.com

COUPLE (any type) - Men, women, or any combination... from sweet and innocent to wherever the evening and comfort levels take us. I've done plenty of nude shoots, but only solo - and I would love to shoot a couple, straight, lesbian or gay. loving each other and being natural and unafraid. Be sensual, be erotic, be someone else if it helps.

I'm an artist. If you clicked on my ad, I'm guessing you are too. That said, I know you can see the artistic merit in at least one of these scenarios. Let's work together to make some beautiful art.

What I would like to find is a creative partner or partners who bring their own feel and flavor to the project. Or, if you prefer to be a model who is directed and posed, I'm happily able to work with that too.

There will be a written agreement clearly stating that we both have permission to use the images and whatever other terms we both decide on. Before meeting we can page forward, but something safe and directing projects both of us, and spells out what permissions and restrictions exist. If you want the photos to stay completely private, guys, sure I can work with that. You want to use images on your social media, figure out what kind of credit I do or don't want... that's the deal

YOU retain control on the day of the shoot. At the end of the shoot, we go over the pics. If some go too far for your taste, these can be marked for creative censorship (cropping, blurring, etc) or even deletion. And you can watch me delete them, if you wish, so you know there's no attempt at funny business.

As far as pay. Particularly with nude or paint work, I'd be happy to compensate $100 or more, depending on what we can work out.

I will be happy to show samples of my work, but because of confidentiality agreements, much of it is eyes only. I'll send a few that were approved and if we meet, I can show you some eyes-only work.

Please send a description of yourself and what you wanted to get from a project like this, along with a few representative shots.

Let's make some! :-)
