Female vocalist here looking for some great musicians in the kitsap county or Seattle area that are needing a vocalist for their group.

About me

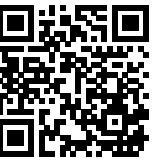

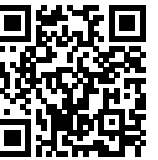

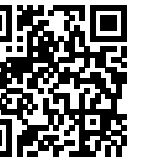

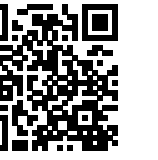

I have been classically trained and studied vocal jazz in college at the Lionel Hampton school of music at the university of Idaho. Now I am a working professional in downtown Seattle while living in Bremerton and miss having a creative outlet. I can do a variety of styles from rock, pop, rockabilly light and airy, singer song writer, vocal jazz, alternative, whatever you need.

I can read music as well, if that helps. :)

What I am looking for:

I am looking for a band needing a lead vocalist to do covers or originals, and am open to many styles. Would even be open to vocal ensembles as well. I work full time, so something that is more evening and weekend focused would be lovely.

Below I have included links to videos of me singing various songs and styles. Please reach out if you are interested.
