One puppy available again. The family he was supposed to go to backed out, so someone else has the chance to bring this little monkey faced clown home with them. He is black with rust markings. He will be ready to leave at the end of the month. Pics of their parents are also included for reference. A rehoming fee does apply, as we want him to go to a great forever home. New pics added today(Aug. 7th) of him with newest ones in front of older. He will be up to date on shots and wormings when comes home with you, and will bring a puppy pack with him to help transition him to your family easier. If you are not familiar with the breed, then please look them up before contacting us, so you will know if he would fit into your family well or not. Thanks for reading, and have a great.
