when emailing, please put "BY DAY" in your subject line or I will DELETE the email without reading it...the spam is horrible and unrelenting.

well, here we are...

me, sign painter, just about 10 years experience, professional, clean, colorful, courteous. glass, brick, metal, wood, auto, interior and exterior. flexible on rates, used to startup budgets. please note, for me to do my craft best, the ideal weather is above 55 degrees, low wind and dry...unless it is an inside gig, then never mind.

you, a business owner needing attention.

I do hand painted works, no vinyl, no computers, all hand and brain. for this fact, my prices are going to be higher than normal sign making methods. if you are not prepared to pay a little more for quality, colorful, hand crafted sign work, please move on. all my pricing is negotiable, I know how it is trying to do something like open a store in todays market.

thanks, daryl.
