K,I had this posted for sale for $1500,this past Wed while changing plugs something dropped in ghe hole,got caught up at the exhaust valve and cracked yhe freaking head.I hate to sell it for this amount but I do NOT have the money to fix it and need to get out of the title loan on it to make payments on something else.I just took the loan out and it will be about $550 to get the title back this week. Good truck in good condition.V-6,5spd manual,working 4x4.AC and heat work,decent stereo and has a sun roof.Has 228k miles and is running good.Rear tires are in very good cond,fronts are fair.

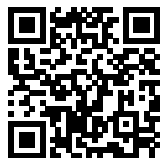

I am disabled due to my heart and back so my having some kind of wheels even if its a scooter is important,I can't hang with the pain of walking or riding a bicycle.
