I am currently the one in this house with my gf of 6 years we decided to move out of our parents and get our own place with our dog a friend of our recommended us to talk to the landlord bobby so we did we saw the place and loved it but we had to share the place with a random guy and found out he was breaking into our rooms we told bobby and he did nothing and then the guy has his brother move into his room which made my gf very uncomfortable to where she did not want to be home alone even with our 3 year old pit which made me very unhappy then after about 3 weeks of moving in we see a spot on the ceiling in the living room and we ask the roommate what it is and he said bobby just said paint over it (he has been living here before us) and then he shows us our bathroom in our room and it's black mold and bobby said nothing of it we have been living here for about 4 months and he said he was going to do the repairs the roof leaks the cabinets are rotted out the dishwasher doesn't work and isn't hooked up and so dirty inside the floor in the living room is caving in and in the laundry room the shower head in the hallway bathroom is falling through the wall and the only thing he has got done was the roof which took 3 days to do because it rained so they did as much as they could when it wasn't raining if you have any questions or would like photos of the place I'm rent is 900 a month not including electricity etc. Just text or send me a call I'll probably get to your text before though because of
