Great home needed for beautiful black haired female cat. Her name is Lexi and she's been spayed already. She is quite beautiful and sweet. She's litter box and outdoor trained. We took her in as a stray and fed her and took care of her. We truly love her, but we can't take care of her since we already have a dog and she doesn't get along well with dogs. She hasn't had a problem with other cats though. Please reply via email if you are interested. She's free to a loving family. Thank.
