Hello!

I translate documents and texts from English to Spanish and Spanish to English. I pride myself on turning over a translation that reads naturally in the target language without losing any meaning or content. I charge very reasonably for the quality of service I offer.

Please respond to this posting with a copy of the document or text to be translated and I will respond from my personal email with a free quote including how quick I can get you the translation.

I am very experienced and I have experience translating texts in the following fields:

Medical, legal, political, news/media, personal letters, business letters, employee handbooks, immigration documents, religion, music, culture, food,.
