This girl was dropped off at my house. I have let her come in and grown attached to her, but have cats of my own. She had kittens 8 weeks ago and since they will all be going to their new homes on Monday is time to find her a good home. I put her a lil over a year old but a very small cat, maybe 5 pounds. She's very loving and will sleep with you and everything. She has been an indoor/outdoor cat at my house but would be fine just indoor. Free to a great!
