The kittens name is matzu. He is very sweet and cuddly and loves attention. He is neutered and updated on all shots and vaccinations. He is good with other animals and is also microchipped. He needs a new home since I am rarely home to train him and give him the attention he needs. I'm asking for $40 as a rehoming fee and a coverage for some of the vet bills since they are not cheap. He comes with a liter box, liter, food and water bowl, a collar, and some toys. I need a home asap since I cannot take care of him. Contact me if
