hello! i'm flying in to the sf airport on tuesday october 6th around 5ish. i'm looking for a ride north on the 101, preferably as far as willits or laytonville. i totally have gas money and can meet you at a bart station that's convenient to you so you can avoid the clusterjam of the airport (more gas money if you pick me up from there!!!) i know it's a long shot but hey, can't hurt to try, yeah? i have a backpack, small bag, and guitar.!
