Our family is reaching out to arrange permanent homes for our puppies who are now ready for adoption. The puppies are 7 1/2 weeks and developmentally ready to have individual families with time and attention to train and love them. Their mom is a purebred Chocolate lab, 3 years, healthy and part time hunting lab. Dad is our neighbors black lab. He is 3/4 lab and 1/4 shepherd. Size an appearance of lab with just a bit longer hair.

The puppies have their vaccinations and come each to its new home with records, including de worming. They have been around our cat, other dogs and children. We kennel train now that they are old enough to begin house breaking.

As far as homing fee, the chocolate puppies are $400. Black are $350. Here are some pictures, but I suggest meeting in person to see them and their sweet nature. They are older than pictures now. Include a phone number, they will go quickly I am sure. Thank.
