Woof! My name is Pharaoh, I am a gentle loving German Shepard/Husky mix. I live with a GREAT family of 5 at a cozy house in Standish. My masters are great to me in so many ways and one even used to train dogs for a living. They have 3 kids, 2 boys age 12 and 14 and a 17 year old girl (Grrrr). I get well fed, treats, toys, bones and I'm even allowed on the couch! My Masters rescued me from a kill shelter in Tennessee on the day I was scheduled to "go". Even with all these people and toys, I still get bored and because I am an emotional cuddle-bug, I GET LONELY! The kids are in and out with school and human friends and my masters runs alot of errands (I don't like rides). So.....we're looking for a small breed buddy for a cure. We'd love to save/rescue a dog. In a bad situation? Owners moving away? Ignored? Abused? We don't mind paying a small fee ($0-$100/$150) but were looking to save a local dog, not influence one to be sent up here for purchase...there's enough of those around. Please-can you help?-----!
