

Looking For Opinionated People To Argue On The Internet

Location Wyoming https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-730539-z

Are you a good debater? Do you feel strongly about any specific subjects, and want to share this view with the world? Are you ok with the possibility of someone challenging your views, and not agreeing with you? Can you have a civil discussion? Are you able to say "wow you make really great points, I'm almost convinced to consider your view?" Do you just want to potentially find a hole in your arguments? Do you like the Kardashians or the band Nickelback despite the rest of the world not liking them? Have you recently read an article that you thought was just obviously wrong?

http://www.divergentopinions.com is a startup blog project seeking strong writers and debaters who are ok with being challenged. If interested, respond to this posting with what topic(s) you would like to discuss, and any reason we should invite you to our platform.

Posts will be edited and monitored to avoid anything blatantly offensive related to race, sexual orientation, or obvious attacks on some human right. Remember these are civil debates, not attacks on any groups of people. Topics can range from politics, current events, global issues, and even subjects like relationships, taxes, and school.

You will gain experience in using the Wordpress platform, and we will handle trying to find someone to debate your point. This is invite only through e-mail, and we will not verify who the account is tied to, and thus you can choose to post anonymously if you wish.
