Hi I'm Known as Geno. I've been playing Blues Harmonica for 42 yrs. and I would really Love to put a Blues Band together. Have posted before to alot of lip service. I will say this right off the rip. I find that if you pay these people they'll play with you. But What I'm Looking For Is People Who Put The Music First. I Feel That If The Music Is Right. The Money Will Follow. So Now With That All Said. Looking For Serious Blues Players. I Can & Will Get Us Gigs Too. After We Have A Good Three Hour Set Down Only Need Serious People Too Apply No Scammers Or People trying to do me like the last group people that answered this post did Or anyone who thinks they can help me need to be contacting me.
