I take in unwanted birds, for many reasons, no questions asked and I will not judge you. I'm just a bird lover and have dedicated my time into caring for birds. I currently have 13 birds in my care and have room for a few more. The bird's placed with me, stay in my care, I don't not foster, sell, or adopt out any of my birds, so please do not email me asking for a bird. I keep in touch with many of the birds original owners, all my birds a very well cares for and all eat healthy diets of fresh fruits and veggies, pellets, treats and seed. I have many years experience with all types of bird species and behavoir issues. So if your bird is a screamer or aggressive, it's ok. All my birds are kept indoors only. All healthy and happy. Please if you're a breeder do not email me, no offense. I'm not looking to buy birds, I'm looking to help birds that need a forever happy home. Thank.
