Located across the street from the waterfront in between Fells Point and Canton, this three story row home, completely renovated in 2016, gives you the best of city life with all the latest amenities. Convenient to the best of Baltimore's attractions, the Inner Harbor and the Convention Center. The home is also 1/2 mile from Johns Hopkins Hospital, and 2 miles from Johns Hopkins Bayview Campus. Walk to both Fells Point and Canton, two of the most sought after residential/night life areas in Baltimore. Historic Fells point is famous for its waterfront shops and galleries, restaurants and pubs. Canton is one of the fastest growing urban professional communities in Baltimore, known for its entertainment, waterside living, restaurants and night life. The house has two master suites with bathrooms, plus an additional bedroom and bathroom in the finished basement. Water views from every floor! Relax and enjoy spectacular views of the waterfront and city skyline from the rooftop deck. Granite countertops, hardwood floors, and upgraded bathrooms. Park your car and leave it - no need to drive to see the best of the City's attractions. Just walk across the street to take the water taxi to all of Baltimore's main attractions - the National Aquarium, Port Discovery Children's Museum, historic Fort McHenry, Science Center, Fells Point, Canton Waterside, Inner Harbor and Locust Point. The Baltimore Convention Center, Oriole Park at Camden Yards and Ravens Stadium are just a few blocks from the Inner Harbor water taxi stop, and are serviced by the free Charm City Circulator buses. There is also a Circulator bus stop a few blocks from the house. Or enjoy a quiet walk through historic Patterson Park - a 30+ acre park with numerous walking trails, a lake and a historic pagoda, just 3 blocks away from the
