QR Code Link to This Post We Have a beautiful and well marked Female Husky named Everest that we are trying to rehome. She is a very lovable dog and a sweetie. She is not fixed at this time but shots are up to date. She gets along with kids, other dogs but not sure about cats. We have had her since she was 2 months and got her from a couple that her parents were award winning dogs for this breed. She is mostly house broken, she uses our dog doors to go outside but does have accidents in the house still. She is very smart and will need someone that can give her a lot of attention and that has a big fence, she is an a escape artist. There is a rehoming fee of $300 and she does come with a cage, food, bowls and collar. If you are interested in her please do your research on Huskies, they have a mind of their own. This will be up till I find her a home..Male and female husky needs new home, landlord won't let us keep more than 1 pet. We already have a cat of 5 years. He is 13 weeks old, born in may. he is fixed, housebroken, good with cats, dogs and loves children. He is AKC but comes with no papers, does come with registry number on collar. Asking rehoming fee of $200, which is less than what I paid for him. Price is negotiable don't be afraid to ask, just want a good home for him! Thank you for reading, if interested text no call for pictures and information.
