QR Code Link to This Post Rock/Metal band looking for a vocalist. Mostly original material,possibly/probably some covers as we're already being asked to gig. We need a front man. Lyric writer is desirable, but not a deal breaker if not (we have ideas,and this can be a collaborative effort). We're looking for DYNAMICS...Pantera meets Judas Priest,with maybe the range of a Chris Cornell type? These are just examples of singers off the top of my head,what I'm trying to describe here, is RANGE and the ability to carry a tune (harmony). The opportunity to play out live is VERY REAL and the offers/requests are already coming in. Sunday rehearsal/auditions in Lahaina.
