QR Code Link to This Post I have experience tutoring in both biology and chemistry as an undergraduate student. As a Ph.D. student in biochemistry and molecular biology, I have proofread/revised every manuscript and grant proposal from my current lab, some of which have been published.

I love tutoring because it helps me hone my teaching skills while helping a student understand a difficult concept. I also like being able to share my enthusiasm for science and grammar with others who might not feel the same way!

Hourly rate: $35
 Rate details: $30/hr for multiple hour lessons.
 Group rates are.
