QR Code Link to This Post Mint condition (everything works as it should). Very lightly used as for I am single and do up to three loads a week. I'm currently using this machine however I want to go back to the old agitator type- I haven't quiet adopted this new technology. That's the only reason I'm selling it. Only 2 years old- with lots of life left and you're saving $200+(no taxes or shipping cost). Drain hose and $30 power cord included.
