QR Code Link to This Post Buddy is a shy but sweet dog looking for a calm home. He is not aggressive whatsoever but he doesn't like to be around many people and would prefer a home with females. It takes a long time for him to get comfortable with males. He is not a barker. Not a high energy dog but of course does need to be walked daily or play with another dog. Great on leash. Great with other dogs, cats, and kids although it takes a while for him to get comfortable enough to play. He is mostly potty trained but he does have accidents sometimes if he isn't let out enough. With patience I'm sure can learn quickly. He is neutered and up to date on shots. Needs a home with a securely fenced yard. He knows how to open unlocked gates with his teeth if left out unsupervised for a while. Comes back when called if he does get out though. Loves to lay on the floor with you and sleep. Once he warms up to you he can be very playful. Seems to prefer being outside but likes inside as well. He LOVES rawhide bones. He will come with his collar/leash, dog bed, hairbrush, food/water bowls, and whatever he has left of his big bone and box of treats. We adopted him from West Valley Humane Society so if you want him just know we'll have to contact them to have his Microchip info changed to your info. Rehoming fee $180 to good home only.
