QR Code Link to This Post Whatup fools. I am a 26 year old drummer looking for some peeps to jam and play gigs and have a good time with. I would prefer people that do not do drugs or drink too much but I am by no means squarish. I just love rock music and give no shits about how far we go but I will not be the one holding us back from epicness. We can play your lameass music or we can play covers either way we going to have fucking fun. I hate egotistical fucks by the way and will put you in your place pretty fast.

- Been playing kit 16 long years.
- Favorite bands are (in order) Tool, Led Zeppelin, Pink Floyd, The Grateful Dead then bands like The Doors, The Eagles, The Rolling Stones, Soundgarden, The Smashing Pumpkins, Primus, Neil Young, Jimi Hendrix, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Bob Marley and Amon Amarth.

All those fucks are big time influences to me.

I do not have much recorded... I am not proud of these tracks from 5 years ago... but here is something at least... <https://soundcloud.com/jonathan-richards-bo>
