QR Code Link to This Post Working as a freelancer or and / or running a small business is difficult enough. We have many things to deal with every day. What we don't need is our time wasted by assholes who:

- A: Expect work done for free
- B: Expect to pay minimum wage or less for your projects.
- C. Don't bother to respond to us at all.

If you aren't serious about hiring for your project, stop fucking posting.
We have enough to deal with, we don't need to be dealing with human colostomy bags like.
