QR Code Link to This Post Hello! We are Mark and Justin. We have been together most of our lives and have always wanted to adopt a baby. We can only imagine the decision you're considering right now, and how much you want to do the best thing for your child. If open adoption turns out to be the right path for you, we promise that we will devote our lives and hearts to your child. We live in Brooklyn, right off of a park with a playground, and we are surrounded by loving friends and family.

We've tried to give you a picture of ourselves on our website (www.markandjustinadopt.com). If you like what you see please give us a call. We genuinely want to learn about your hopes and dreams, not only for your child, but for you as well. We believe your child needs to know you, and we're really excited to see what the future may hold for all of us.

We are certified, home study approved, and will cover adoption expenses.
